New Seasons Market, the friendliest store in town, is building a store on N Williams Ave., and we're looking for high-energy, service-oriented people who want to go the extra mile for our customers. We hope you'll join us at our neighborhood job fair where you'll learn more about the jobs we offer in the following departments:

Grocery	Beer & Wine	Floral
Promotions	Cheese	Bakery
Wellness	Overnight Freight	Homegoods
Prepared Foods	Produce	Housekeeping
Front End	Meat & Seafood

New Seasons Market is a local company with great benefits, progressive policies and compensation above the industry average. We are an equal opportunity employer, and our workforce is a reflection of our community. We value everyone's differences and understand that we each contribute in different ways. At New Seasons Market we truly believe that taking good care of our coworkers, our customers and our environment is essential to the success of our business. If you agree, we want to meet you!

In addition to our new Williams Avenue store, New Seasons Market may also be hiring for other store locations.

Computers and staff will be available at the event to assist with online applications.
